

Full Name:

You must have completed one of the following
A	Current credentials as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) from the National Association of School Psychologists
B	A minimum of a specialist level of training and graduate degree in School Psychology from a NASP approved School Psychology program. A “specialist level” is defined by NASP as minimum of three years of full time graduate study (or the equivalent) beyond the bachelor’s degree, involving at least 60 graduate semester or 90 graduate quarter hours.
C	A Master’s degree or higher in school psychology or a related field from an accredited institution which includes graduate coursework or course content with a minimum official transcript grade of B or better in the following areas:
	1. Individual intelligence testing
	2. Academic assessment
	3. Special education law and policy
	4. Behavioral assessment and behavioral interventions
	5. Exceptional children / child psychopathology
	6. Child development
	7. Instructional strategies / academic interventions
	8. Social and emotional assessment
	9. Individual / group counseling
	10. Administration, role and function of the School Psychologist
	11. Curriculum based measurement
	12. Consultation and collaboration
	13. Course work / content that includes at least one of the following: a. Tests and measurement / psychometrics b. Research design c. Statistics
	14. Cultural diversity
	15. Documentation of a supervised School Psychology internship that meets NASP standards
Additional documentation — You must check one (1) of the following:
A	Documentation, including reviews, of a professionally Supervised Experience Plan applied in a school setting and supervised by a Class 6 School Psychologist during the period in which the applicant held a Class 5 Alternative License
B	Applicants who have NOT previously held a Montana Class 5 Alternative License should provide documentation of a completed one year supervised internship as a School Psychologist

Review Board Fee

Initial Review Fee $150.00
Resubmission Review Fee $50.00

For official use only Date Received
--

Submit this completed checklist together with official transcripts, relevant documentation and review fee (payable to the Montana Association of School Psychologists) to:

Joelene Goodover, MASP Applicant Liaison, 803 Forest Avenue, Great Falls, MT 59404